It's been awfully nice knowing you this year and I'm really sorry we didn't know each other sooner. We've had lots of fun this year working in the Nurse's office and skipping out every five minutes. It was fun though. I hope next year we can have lots more fun and go places together. I know for certain one thing, we're going to have lots more activities in the F. N. A., that is if I'm still President. I think Saturday night will turn out nice too (if Dick and I aren't fighting). Maybe this summer we can go places together. It seems like all of our friends are either working or going away for the summer. I hope your not. Well, I'll close for now so lots of luck and I hope your always my friend.

Superintendent E. L. Bowsher

In the ever broadening vista of educational expansion and development that is stretching ahead in our Toledo area, we are fortunate in having as our chief, Superintendent E. L. Bowsher. His past efficiency is a signal pledge of his future accomplishments. As Seniors of the Class of Nineteen Fifty-Two, we wish him the greatest fortune and the greatest success in keeping our schools outstanding in the state and in the nation.

Principal Loy W. Rusie

Wisdom in adjustment, fairness in administration, and vision in planning are prime requisites of a good principal. When these qualities are combined with kindness and a sympathetic interest in every person in school, a harmonious atmosphere is assured. In our principal, Mr. Loy W. Rusie, we recognize all these attributes and wish to congratulate him for his fine work and thank him for his guidance and counsel during our four years at Libbey High School.

MR. JOHN E. OSGOOD

DEDICATION

To be consecrated to a pattern of living that is based upon integrity, a sense of responsibility, and the desire to serve others is indeed conducive to satisfaction and success. From his childhood in Manila in the Philippines, where his father was superintendent of schools, to his being awarded the degree of Master of Arts by the University of Michigan, Mr. John Osgood seemed always to be preparing for the position he holds so successfully at Libbey. He received his elementary training in Cleveland and in the Cathedral Chapel School in Toledo, later graduating from Central Catholic High. At St. John's College and at Ohio State University he was prepared for his Bachelor of Arts Degree. His teaching career found him at his alma mater, Central High; at Fort Jennings, Ohio, where he was superintendent of schools; and at Libbey since 1936.

Not only has he been active in teaching and counseling, but Mr. Osgood has served efficiently in educational and community activities. For fifteen years he has been on the Board of Directors of the Toledo Teachers' Association; he is a member of the planning committee of B. I. E. Day; he aids as a director in the Toledo Citizens' Committee for Family Life Education; on four occasions he has traveled to Washington to represent Toledo in school legislation.

Mr. Osgood's very happy family consists of his wife, two daughters both attending college, and one very important son. His hobby is sailing his eighteen foot "Sea Gull" and enjoying his membership in the Toledo Yacht Club.

Since his appointment as Dean of Boys at Libbey in 1945 he has been striving, with his fine background of academic, religious and community experiences, to counsel and help the boys of Libbey by his sincerity, kindness, and friendship. Thus it is with great respect and admiration that the Senior Class of 1952 affectionally dedicates this Edelian to a very fine man, Dean John E. Osgood.

FAREWELL

Today, we find ourselves blessed with a collection of treasures more priceless than material possessions could ever be. Happy hours of gay companionship, memories of unforgettable friends, all have been indelibly carved in our hearts. As we turn our thoughts to the challenging, but all too brief years of the future, we pause a moment to marvel at the patience, consideration, and wisdom our teachers, parents, and friends have shown us. Our sincere appreciation for their efforts is redoubled as we grow more mature, and realize our dreamed-of ambitions. Beginning the weary climb up the ladder of success, we shall find that no obstacle is too great to be overcome if met with unshakable courage and happiness. Happiness is the essence of success; courage, the lifeblood of achievement. May all of us truly enjoy a rich and peaceful life in the future.

JON HELMS

After four years of comparable security, we are taking the step that plunges us into the stream of life. Whether we sail or sink depends upon us. At Libbey we have acquired the rudimentary materials for our oars, sails, and steering wheels, for which we sincerely thank our able teachers and our friend Mr. Rusie; but it is up to each individual to build a strong craft from these foundations. Storm warnings have been posted, and the growls of thunder can be heard all over the world. This tempest threatens to capsize many ships of state. Upon our shoulders and those of the other students who are graduating rests the responsibility for future peace. Who knows, from this Class of 1952 may come a great leader or a great scientist or a great musician. But all this lies in the vague, nebulous, mysterious future. So, farewell to the old and hail to the new! May our course be smooth and our prow pointed due west. May we always have cause to say, "It's a great life. Calm or stormy, it's a great life."

EDELIAN

The Senior Banquet! Edelian Day! The happy culmination of the year for seniors and underclassmen alike! And how the Edelian Staff have worked to accomplish all of this. From the flashing of snaps last fall to the final approval of the last bit of printer's proof, everyone has been busy to produce what this staff believes is one of the finest of all yearbooks. Counseling, directing, and planning with the editors was Miss Ruth Dusha, who with Mr. Charles Martin, as business director, and Principal Loy W. Rusie, as adviser extraordinary, directed the Edelian activities. The Co-Editors for the year were Joanne Collins and Sue Stoldt. The faculty editors were Nancy Clark and Joanne Eyman; the senior editors included Mary Delaplane, Kay Hoffman, Marcia Beier, and Janet Whitehead. Classes and snapshots were cared for by Karl Kazmaier and Marianne Jaekle; athletics, by Gregory Wolf and Dick Hull; and clubs by Mary Ann Conold and Jack Meinert. The advertising business and layouts in the editorial department were handled by Derith Bunge, Molly Boyer, and Nancy Yates. In the business department were Sandra Lewis as advertising manager; Johnnie Lewis, and Beverly Rickard as co-circulation managers.

CRYSTAL

The "Crystal" staff has outdone itself again this year in gathering school news, editing it, and distributing our high-ranking school paper. The enjoyment that the school derives from the paper makes the staff worthy of praise and exclamations for each monthly issue.

Co-editors-in-chief, Mona Courtad and Lamar Sawyer, under the advisership of Miss Gerdes, have produced many fine articles of a wide variation. Much credit also goes to associate editor, Jon Helms; news editor, Joanne McKinney; feature editor, Suzie Miller; sports editor, Ronny Hilfinger; typing editor, Sally Peters; club editor, Meredith Good; exchange editor, Shirley White; and advertising editors, Frieda Collins and Don Rettig.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The citadel, which every freshman who is an earnest and ambitious student endeavors to reach, is membership in the National Honor Society. The chances against him are high; but the harder the fight, the greater the rewards. The requisites for membership in this club are scholarship, leadership, character, and service. To be eligible one must stand in the upper third of the Senior class or the top five percent of the Junior class. To belong to the National Honor Society is a decided asset in later life.

Membership in this society permits you to wear a mark of distinction; a pin on which is engraved a keystone and torch, the symbols of the society. The keystone represents the base of all education, and the torch is an incentive to society members to light the way for others.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Organization of the school's Christmas decorations was carried out very efficiently by the society, with the eighth grade visitation day fulfilling their obligation to Libbey's future students. Along with these duties the club held a quiz show, "It's News to Me," in the auditorium in which the faculty and the students participated. This year's officers of the society—Lamar Sawyer, president; Joanne McKinney, vice-president; Hedy Lew, secretary, and Jack Meinert, treasurer—were ably guided by Miss Gilbert.

PERICLEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

A busy year for the Peries was started by the mass-meeting for the DeVilbiss Thanksgiving game. The theme of the peppy affair was a circus. Again the traditional horseshoe of flowers was presented to the team. The chairman of the mass meeting was Nancy Yates. Next on the list of activities for the year was the annual "Bake Sale" at the Franklin Ice Cream store, which was capably arranged by Joanne Eyman. The most important event of the year was the "Holiday Hop," held at Heatherdowns Country Club on February 22 under the direction of Mary Shoemaker. The new members for the year entertained the other members by a play at one of the meetings, directed by Marcia Bruggeman. Events of the Spring were the Initiation Tea honoring the new members, the Mother-Daughter Tea, a roast, and a farewell banquet.

Besides social activities, the Peries maintained a literary program, the subject of which was "The Story of Ohio." Each class conducted a meeting and the one that had the best program was later entertained by the others, the seniors and Miss Dusha judging the contest. "Nulli Secundus", meaning "second to none," was kept in mind with the immensely helpful assistance of the Pericleans, adviser, Miss Ruth Anne Dusha, and the cabinet: Marcia Beier, president; Mary Shoemaker, vice-president; Mary Ann Conold, treasurer; Molly Boyer, recording secretary; Nancy Yates, corresponding secretary; and Rae Myers, chaplain.

PHILALETHEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

Striving in every way to live up to their purpose: to promote high standards of scholarship, leadership, literary interest, fellowship, consideration of others, reliability, co-operation and school spirit, the Phils and their very capable adviser, Miss Kirk, began another successful year. The Waite mass meeting with its theme of a bargain sale, planned by Kay Hoffman and Mary Hamilton, drove our team to a smashing victory. Evelyn Awe took charge of selling pencils with the season's football schedule printed on them. The Phils sponsored the "St. Nick's Strut" in the Woman's Building to the music of Jack Runyan. Migs Endsley and her committee deserved lots of credit for its success. The club sent a Christmas Basket to a needy family with the help of the chairman, Carolyn Schenk. In honor of their mothers and their teachers, the Phils presented their annual tea in April with Barbara Walker as chairman. The senior Phils received their gifts at this time. A dance was held after a basketball game in January with Mitzi Kohring as chairman. A banquet in May at the Hillcrest saw the formal initiation of new members and the installation of new officers. Mitzi Kohring and Bobbie Simons served as co-chairmen.

Under the direction of the officers — president, Peggy Broadway; vice-president, Migs Endsley; treasurer, Sue Smilax; recording secretary, Connie Zelt; corresponding secretary, Shirley White; chaplain, Kay Hoffman; sergeant-at-arms, Mary Hamilton; senior censor, Nancy Clark; and Junior censor, Carol Hischka—the Phil family closed the year.

ZETALETHEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

Another school year has made the Zets proud indeed of their achievements. Again they were of great service to the senior class, when they assumed the responsibility of ordering and distributing the name cards used in the senior announcements. One and all enjoyed the social events of the year. A gay St. Patrick's Day theme was carried out in the annual dance, the "Shillelagh Shag," which was held at the Woman's Building, March 15. A dance was also held after a basketball game on January 18. A tea honoring the mothers and teachers was given in the Libbey Library on the afternoon of May 7. As the last social event of the year, the banquet was held at the Woman's Building, May 17. Memories of the past year were recalled.

The programs at the meetings based upon the subject, "Personality Quotients," not only promoted the literary interests of the girls, but helped to teach good fellowship and consideration of others as well as the value of co-operation. The counsel of Miss Delisle, Miss Eberth, and Mrs. Dzialok, was appreciated as they guided the following officers: Mona De Courtad, president; Janet Whitehead, vice-president; Barbara Kowalski, corresponding secretary; Jo Ann McKinney, recording secretary; Mary Delaplane, treasurer; Margie Pizza, sergeant-at-arms; Carol Hepner, chaplain; and Shirley Mault, courier. The junior officers were Mary Hazelbaker, historian, and June Shepler, censor.

QUILL AND DAGGER — FORUM

The many activities and events this year for the Q.D.'s were successful. Mr. Robinson, as adviser, was helped greatly by the officers: Jim McCarty, president; Bill Brown, vice-president; Ron Hilfinger, secretary; Tom Funka, treasurer; and Larry Kelly, sergeant-at-arms. Proposing "to discover and encourage original talent, to promote enlightened leadership, and to generate a will to serve," the Q.D.'s opened the year with the annual "Q.D. Shindig," which brings back memories of a traditionally outstanding school dance. In the spring the boys held their roast at which the officers for the coming year were elected. This brought to conclusion another very successful year.

Again under the able supervision of their adviser, Mr. Earl Harris, the Forum has fulfilled its purpose, "to promote citizenship, leadership, and service to the school." An admirable new group was inducted in December with Tom Jackson serving as chairman of the initiation committee. The program included an ably planned roast by Bob Haverman in the fall at Farnsworth, appropriate Christmas decorations for the main office, a dance in the gym after the Libbey-Central basketball game in February, and, to round out the calendar, the annual dance in May. Serving as officers were Tom Smith, president; Jack Meinert, vice-president; Dick Strahm, secretary; Lamar Sawyer, treasurer; and Barton Bay, sergeant-at-arms.

SENIOR AND JUNIOR HI-Y

The Hi-Y movement, starting in 1889, is characterized by its slogan, "Clean sports, clean scholarship, and clean living." Welcoming Mr. Needles in his initial year as adviser to the Senior Hi-Y at Libbey were the following officers: Ronny Hilfinger, president; Jim Ritzenthaler, vice president; Jack Meinert, secretary; and Mike Arner, treasurer. The year started with a winter weekend trip to Camp Storer, an event which proving successful was repeated in the spring. The group enjoyed the basketball and swimming facilities of the Central Y.M.C.A. Co-operating with the other Hi-Y clubs at Libbey, the Seniors were fortunate enough to be able to present George Campbell, speaker and song leader, for an auditorium program in April.

Maintaining the fine traditions and ideals of all Hi-Y clubs throughout the nation is the Libbey Junior Hi-Y club. In the building of character and clean living few youth organizations have equalled the record of the Young Men's Christian Association which sponsors and works closely with all Hi-Y clubs. In their social and educational events for the 1951-1952 season the Junior Hi-Y merited recognition, including participation in the Mother and Son Banquet in May and the showing of the film "Dust or Destiny." Elected to lead the club were Jim Wassmund, president; Don Garner, vice president; Wayne Kakela, treasurer; and Pete Finch, secretary. Serving as competent adviser was Mr. Vanderwulp.

SOPHOMORE, FRESHMAN HI-Y-PROJECTION CLUB

Under the direction of Mr. Kiefer, the combined efforts of the Freshman and Sophomore Hi-Y has produced a club that has prospered in many ways. The club had a community swim at the Central YMCA in January. The committee chairman, Dave Wyland, worked diligently on this project and was rewarded with full attendance. At the beginning of the year the members elected Ed Mautler, president; Ron Onnenga, vice-president; Dave Wyland, secretary; Robert Recht, treasurer; and Ned Neal, chaplain. The valuable experience that these members have gained this year will certainly be of great help to them in the future at Libbey.

The purpose of the Projection Club is to promote visual education in Libbey High School in order to give the pupils in the classroom a better knowledge of the subjects they are studying. For the benefit of the group itself, the club has special projects whereby the members study a variety of films which they order for their classes. Relaxation and fun are also included in the clubs activities. In addition to teaching the operation of films and slide projectors, the club taught its members how to use the catalogues in ordering films and the evaluation of pictures. The club adviser, Mr. Lincke, has been of much assistance to this group and the capable members added to the efficiency of the Projection Club.

SENIOR Y-TEENS

The Senior Y-Teens have, as always, planned and carried out many worthwhile projects under the guidance of their capable adviser, Miss Allen. The officers of the club were Mary Hamilton, president; Barbara Kowalski, vice president; Joanne Collins, recording secretary; Evelyn Awe, corresponding secretary; and Joan Thomas, treasurer. To begin the year the girls sponsored the annual football banquet in honor of the varsity team and their parents. In February the members entertained their mothers and the faculty at the annual spring tea. The girls themselves enjoyed the Senior Y-Teen Banquet which was also held in the spring.

To increase their treasury, they sold Christmas cards, candy, mistletoe, and at Thanksgiving time the traditional chrysanthemums. In December the club collected food for a basket which was given to a needy family. As has been the custom for several years, the club purchased and decorated the Christmas tree in the lobby which was enjoyed by all at Libbey during the holiday season. The Y-Teen members sponsored a book review which was given by Alice Huebner. As a climax of their numerous activities, the girls contributed to the new YWCA building fund. This new building has since been erected and is now enjoyed and admired by all.

JUNIOR Y-TEENS

The motto of the Junior Y-Teens is "to grow as a person; to grow in friendship with people of all races, creeds, and nationalities; to grow in the knowledge and love of God." This year the Junior Y-Teens have been unusually active. They had a very successful splash party at the new YWCA early in the year, with Kaye Bache serving as chairman of the committee. An after-game dance was held in the gym. Mitzi Kohring and Carol Hishka were capable co-chairmen. They, along with the other members of their committee, planned and made it one of the most well attended dances of the school year.

For the Libbey-Woodward football game this active club put on a mass-meeting depicting a typical slumber party which was well received by both the team and student body. The Junior Y-Teens has rendered several worthwhile services for the school during the past year. Much credit goes to their very able adviser, Miss Russell, and to the capable leaders. The officers were Jackie Noss, president; Bonnie Sutton, vice president; Susan Double, secretary; Joyce Critzer, treasurer; Beverly Heising, chaplain; Kaye Bache, program chairman; and Phyl Joan Orbeson, Hi-Y representative.

SOPHOMORE Y-TEENS

The industrious Sophomore Y-Teens, with the assistance of their able adviser, Mrs. Haffelder, completed another successful year which has included many service projects and social activities. The girls are constantly striving to uphold the purpose of the club, which seeks to promote better understanding among the girls and attempts to do the most good where it is needed. The leaders of the club this year were Ann Schlicher, president, Jackie Shepler, vice president, Donna Callaghan, secretary, and Debbie Hill, treasurer.

The girls, to begin the year, sent gifts to the children at the Maumee Orphanage. These gifts were a delightful surprise to the children. To add to the Christmas spirit and to brighten up the halls of Libbey, the Sophomore Y-Teens, like many other clubs, decorated a window in the building. Their efforts and the efforts of many clubs which participated in the project, were enjoyed by everyone. In February, the members enjoyed a swimming party which was held in the new Y.W.C.A. pool. This completed another year which leaves behind many happy experiences and pleasant memories.

FRESHMAN Y-TEENS

In the third year since its formation at Libbey the Freshman Y-Teens has grown in membership to be, by far, the largest club in school. "To grow as a person; to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities; and to grow in the knowledge and love of God" is the purpose of the Freshmen Y-Teens.

In the memory of all high school students is the first year in high school. At the start of one's freshman semester there is always a feeling of apprehension and fear of the unknown. Learning your way about the halls and from room to room, settling down to a serious interest in studies, and above all getting acquainted with your classmates—all this is wrapped up in the freshman year in high school. Helping to make this transition easier becomes one of the basic interests of any study or literary organization. Such is the specific case of the Freshman Y-Teens, with the tangible result that in membership—if not in activity—it exceeds any other of Libbey's Y-Teen Clubs.

FRESHMAN Y-TEENS

The clubs most favorable social event, a tea, was held in the spring. Carrying out various service projects added further credit to this organization. One of these projects, helping in the Lenten Services, was carried on in connection with the other Y-Teen clubs—especially the senior group.

The responsibility of leadership was invested in the following elected officers: Judy Hawley, president; Janet Kollmeier, vice-president; Tam Townsend, secretary; Esther Fleming, treasurer; and Jean Kerns, Chaplain. Being fortunate enough to have Miss Allen as the club adviser, the girls wish to extend their appreciation for her aid during the past year.

CLASSICAL HONOR—JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

With Mrs. Pauline Burton as their adviser, the Classical Honor Society combined with the Junior Classical League, has spent a very profitable year in the pursuit of their main objective—"Making the students of Libbey High School more familiar with Latin." Under the leadership of Hedy Leu as president, Jerry Hawley as vice president, and Jane Hintz as secretary-treasurer, the club has had a fine year socially and intellectually. One of the vital programs of work was the sending of Care Packages for European countries. Also, in April, a delegation was selected to attend the state convention, representing the Toledo Chapter of the Classical Honor Society.

To promote interest in the classics and to further an appreciation of them is the aim of the Junior Classical League. Jane Hintz was chairman of the picnic which was held at Side-Cut Park in October. Latin Week was held March twenty-fourth to the twenty-eighth, with Shirley White acting as chairman. Another of their social events was the club's annual tour of Michigan University in April. For one of their work programs the Junior Classical League sent CARE Packages to Europe. Their State Convention was held April 18 in Columbus, Ohio. Officers of the club are as follows: president, Esther Prueter; vice president, Hedy Leu; records, Margaret Eppard; finance, Shirley Browning, properties, Don Rettig; social welfare, Beverly Buckingham; membership, Frances Palmer; and communications, Jane Fenner.

F. T. A.—FRENCH CLUB

The purpose of the Future Teachers of America is exploratory, pre-vocational, and character-forming. Members learn facts about, and opportunities in, the field of teaching. The organization has had many activities this year, its first being the selling of the Libbey bookcovers. They have served as teachers' aides, ushered at the Northwestern Ohio Teachers Convention, and represented Libbey at the various educational programs of other schools. The club honored the faculty with a party in the spring and ended their activities with a banquet for the members and the advisers. The officers were Marianne Jeakle, president; Sue Stoldt, vice president; Esther Hernandez, secretary; Mary Delaplane, treasurer; Gladys Jeakle, librarian; Mary Reed, historian; Shirley Keiser, parliamentarian; Bonnie Sutton, sergeant-at-arms; and Carole Morgan, song leader. The advisers are Mr. Rusie, Miss Dusha, and Miss Foster.

To promote a greater interest in the study of the language, customs, geography and culture of France is the French Club's matter. The members corresponded with pupils in France and sent a Care box to a needy family. At Christmas they decorated two of Libbey's windows and held their annual party. Shirley Osburn was chairman of the Valentine Party and Hedy Leu of the banquet committee. A party was given the children at the Lucas County Children's Home. French songs, games, and films were enjoyed by the club. Guided by their efficient adviser, Miss Krueger, the officers of the club worked harmoniously and well. They included: Joyce Entenmann, president; Joanne McKinney, vice-president; Vicky Bowes, secretary; Anita White, treasurer; Shirley Osburn, Mary Hazelbaker, censors.

F. N. A.—RED CROSS

"To learn to be of service to others and to stimulate interest in nursing as a profession" is the aim of the F. N. A. In the fall Mr. George Abel gave a talk on flower arrangements which was informative as well as interesting. In February representatives from the Toledo hospitals spoke to the Libbey girls in the auditorium with a movie on nurses' training being shown. The members sent get-well cards to teachers and students absent from school over long periods of time. Their spring tea was held in the school library, the speaker being Miss Cartwright of the Child Welfare Bureau. The F. N. A.'s of other schools were guests. Miss Kelso and Mrs. Baird ably led the club this year with the help of the officers: Darlene Gibson, president; Ruth Yeack, vice president; Carolyn Stone, Secretary; Sharon Le Gron, treasurer; and Joanne Collins, Reporter.

To serve our fellowmen, locally, nationally and internationally is the purpose of the Junior Red Cross. Under the able advisership of Miss Virginia May, the club has contributed fifty dollars to the Children's Fund for relief of destitute children of the world, sent Care Boxes to many countries, and made thousands of tray favors for local hospitals and institutions. They have also supplied Veterans hospitals and remembered charitable institutions in Toledo with hundreds of used magazines and books. The officers of the club are Carol Nickelsen, president; Joyce Panchot, vice president; Walter Brown, secretary; and Richard Perry, treasurer.

STUDENT COUNCIL—DRAMATICS

The Student Council's aim is to discuss problems pertaining to the school, to help settle them as amiably as possible, and to be of service in the school whenever there is a need. This year the council handled the magazine drive, guarded the stairways before school, managed the freshman elections, and cleaned up the drinking fountains. Among their social functions were the dance after the Libbey-Central football game, the bonfire and election of the queen at Thanksgiving time, and a spring roast. The officers for the year were as follows: Ronny Hilfinger, president; Mona De Courtad, vice president; and Suzie Smilax, secretary-treasurer. The Student Council was ably assisted by Miss Henderson, their adviser.

To develop the creative talent of its members and give them practical experience in the interpreting and producing of plays is the principal purpose of the Libbey Dramatics Club. With the excellent cooperation of the members and the capable adviser, Miss Costigan, this organization has been able to promote outstanding dramatic activities for the school. When school opened, they began their work immediately, and in November they presented two one-act plays, "Grandma Old Style" and "Three's a Crowd." Again the props went up and the club triumphed with "Married at Sunrise" and "Sugar and Spice." The Junior and Senior class plays were presented under the sponsorship of the Libbey Dramatics Club. Credit for the wonderful work of the club this year is due to Jerry Hawley, president; Nancy Clark, vice president; Janet Noss, recording secretary; Joyce Entenmann, corresponding secretary; and Greg Wolf, treasurer.

BIOLOGY

One of the most interesting branches of knowledge which some of our students have delved into is that of biology. A theoretical study of this fascinating subject combined with practical experiences gained as a result of the club activities has proved of great value to its members. Programs to promote scientific interests were organized by the officers: James Schnabel, president; Donna Dismuke, vice president; Susan Double, secretary; and James Reardon, treasurer. The first event of the year was a presentation of a movie of Florida plant life taken by Miss Pickard which was followed by an oral report from Dick Atkinson on his recent trip there.

Several members participated in the annual Science Day held at Bowling Green State University, April 6. A roast and initiation opened the social activities of the season with Migs Endsley and Joanne Collins being chairmen respectively. Later in the year a splash party was held in the new YWCA. A banquet climaxed the events of the year. The club appreciated the guidance of their capable advisers, Miss Feidler and Miss Pickard. As a result of these shared experiences, much knowledge was gained as well as many lasting friendships.

U. N. CLUB—CAFETERIA

Peace must begin at home if it is to exist at all. This explains the significance of the Libbey United Nations Club motto: "Peace to the World." In its second year the group's activities have widened considerably to include attendance at the Toledo United Nations Association, a Care Box sent to Europe, and participation in the Armistice Day Program. At that time the club presented to the school a beautiful United Nations flag. In April they took an active part in United Nations Day at Toledo University. As co-advisers Miss Irwin and Mr. Baker were fortunate in having Wendy Kuebler, president; Joanne Collins, vice-president; Joan Thomas, secretary-treasurer; and Carol Cordner, chaplain.

In February the Cafeteria Club was organized by Mrs. Elizabeth Elwing, Cafeteria Manager, and Miss Aileen Eberth, Supervisor of Cafeteria Student Service. The club proposes to show that school spirit is a daily activity of cooperation, good fellowship, and pride in accomplishment. All classes are eligible to membership, and the requirements are based on personal appearance, honesty, amenability, and teacher recommendation. As a daily note of appreciation for their efforts to help the school, the members received gratis a warm lunch. A fitting motto inspired the new society: "Anything worth doing is worth doing well!"

ACTIVITIES—DEAN'S AIDE AND MAIN OFFICE

A group familiar to the student body of Libbey is the Activities Department, as it is essentially one of the most active. With Mr. Martin at its head, it takes care of the distribution of tickets, and of all the activities that constitute the financial backing of the school. This efficient department does its own mimeographing, in addition to keeping a record of school program sales during the entire year. Students holding activities tickets well realize the privilege and advantages they receive from purchasing one. In the previous years, as well as in the past, the department backed the management of the "Rhythm Roundup" to the extent that immeasurable success was the ultimate conclusion.

Chosen for efficiency, dependability, and scholarship, the deans' aides and the office helpers are very important in carrying out a vital part of the school's business. The one group is continually helping the deans, Mr. Osgood and Miss Kanney, in collecting attendance, recording absences, filing excuses, phoning to homes of absentees, and running errands to the classrooms. The year was concluded effectively by the deans and their helpers getting together for a picnic in the spring. The office helpers are selected by the principal because they have shown proficiency in business skills. Their assistance is valuable to the school and in turn they receive practical experience in office procedure. Both groups have functioned very well during the past year.

CHOIR

"To perform for school and civic functions, to give students a chance to sing with proper vocal techniques and to acquire skill in the reading of music" is the admirable purpose of the Libbey Choir. The capable officers for the year were Jon Helms, president; Susie Smilax, vice president; Carol Hischka, treasurer; James Coyle, secretary; Connie Zelt, sergeant-at-arms; and Barbara Staunton, assistant conductor. In the capacity as conductor and adviser, Mr. Harold McClure directed the Choir at Christmas time in many programs in the downtown stores.

The Choir again presented some stimulating music in the spring. Another of the Choir's most unusual activities was to make a recording for the Red Cross. This year in order to perform a unique program, the Choir appeared on a television program. The most widely known school function that the Choir participates in was the Lenten services which were held every Friday during Lent. Their fine interpretations of the favorite hymns were a cause for many compliments from our Lenten speakers.

BAND

Everyone at Libbey is proud of the Band. As the group of blue and gold uniformed members of it march by, we raise our heads a little higher and our hearts are lifted with the feeling of school spirit. As always the Band played an important part during the football season. They provided the music for our songs and cheers at the games and also at the mass-meetings. Besides performing for Libbey's enthusiastic fans, they were included in holiday parades and appeared on various other festive occasions. Among the group's social activities was the Band dance which was held in February at the Walbridge Park Shelter House. Concerts were presented in the spring resulting in the enjoyment of the many who attended.

Indeed it is no wonder that every Libbeyite is proud of the Band with its outstanding music, members, and director. The forty-nine members, though lacking in size and number as compared to other bands, labored zealously and excelled in spirit and co-operation besides lending color and zest to the school. The group was headed by the officers which were: Harry Gunn, president; Charles Bear, vice president; Sue McLaughlin, treasurer; Rae Myers, secretary; and Arthur Huff, sergeant-at-arms. Again the organization was fortunate to be under the able direction of Mr. McClure.

G. A. A.

Here is a club which all girls from green freshmen to dignified seniors can enjoy, for it gives them an opportunity to participate in after school athletic competition in a great variety of sports. In the beginning of the year the girls played tennis, volleyball, and badminton until they began their annual basketball tournament late in the fall. Then in the spring a volleyball tournament was held. The year ended with the annual roast at Walbridge Park. The girls were efficiently aided through this very active year with the aid of Miss Myers, adviser; and the officers: Joyce Moore, president; Jean Gary, vice president; Derith Bunge, secretary; and Frances Palmer, treasurer.

This year the group had many outside activities, too. In January, the club sponsored a volleyball play day to which all city high school G. A. A.'s sent teams. Refreshments were served following the games. This very successful event was led by the co-chairmen, Carole Falk and Shirley Thomas. Then in the spring, groups of juniors and seniors attended play days in Bowling Green University and in Ypsilanti, Michigan, at Ypsilanti State Normal College.

Row 1: Yvonne Griffith, Virginia Sierra, Esther Hernandez, Nancy Jo Brown, La Donna Taylor, Verneda Richardson, Carolyn King, Jeanine Bluhm, Peggy Broadway, Connie White. COMMERCIAL CLUB

The purpose of the Commercial Club is to develop competent business leadership and to understand, intelligently, the choice of business occupations. Because they are a chapter in the Future Business Leaders of America they can better fulfill their motto, "To be honest, courteous, and efficient." Under the combined leadership of Mr. Flatz and Mrs. Houser the club has been extremely prosperous and, therefore, has had to add new advisers, Mrs. Moody, Mr. Needles, and Miss Payne, honorary adviser. The type of work to be done and what materials are to be used are all a large part in the efficiency of a business office. The advisers are of great assistance in helping the girls gain this knowledge.

The officers for the year were Nancy Jo Brown, president; Nancy Bartz, vice president; Sandra Lewis, secretary; Helen Pilcher, treasurer; Doris Layne, reporter; Carol Hepner, Sr. Representative; and Roberta Jefferds, Jr. Representative. The club activities started off the year by holding their annual Halloween Party at Highland Park Shelter House. The chairman of the committee was Peggy Broadway. A Mother's Tea was also held in the school library, and an excellent chairman, Carol Hepner, made things move with dispatch.

Director of Activities

Outstanding in his efforts to promote the name and fame of Libbey High School, Mr. Charles Martin has served us wisely and efficiently as Director of Athletics during the past year. His has been the task of arranging the schedule of games and activities in the various sports as well as handling the financial part of the projects. In industry and zeal he has been untiring. Assisting him in bookkeeping and care of equipment, Mr. Orville Henrion has worked effectively also. A fine group of doctors have represented our community in taking care of the health of our athletes during the year. These men include Dr. R. C. Young, Dr. Wilmarth Paine, Dr. C. Lewis Stev-ers, and Dr. H. R. Carbin.

LIBBEY

Coach Harding, a wonderful coach and true friend, has done a splendid job with the Libbey Team. His constant work and endless efforts have inspired the Cowboys to great victories. This past year he led the boys to the City Co-Cham-pionship with Central. And so, to you Coach Harding, we, the Senior Class, wish continued suc-cess and happiness. We know, "You've done it before, and you'll do it again."

AFTER GRADUATION ? ? ? ?

Suppose you are postponing further academic learning and are going to work. Have you chosen your field of endeavor? Are you considering the places where you will look for work? Have you considered L-O-F? What do those letters mean?

L stands for Libbey in the corporate name Libbey-Owens-Ford. But "L" in L-O-F also stands for Loyalty. The company recognizes this by annually paying honor to scores of people with more than 25 years of company service.

O stands for Owens. But "O" in L-O-F also stands for Opportunity. There are many versions of opportunity in L-O-F. A former mailboy is a traffic executive, another is high on the ladder in the purchasing department. A former accountant has become an officer of the company.

F stands for Ford. In L-O-F, this letter also can stand for "Friends" because you have many friends when you work in L-O-F. It also can identify two of the company's products—flat glass and Fiber-Glass.

Dearest Darling Janice,
Now lets not get sickening about this!!

I've known you for a long time and we've had a lot of fun together. Remember May 30, 1951? Remember Don Lang? Remember that other thing? Now I can't wait until this Saturday, May 31, 1952. We should have fun. Remember the time you stayed all night and we didn't go to sleep until 3:00 A.M.
Remember the curly-headed guy in the two toned Oldsmobile. Remember that
?? that we went with, can't seem to remember his name - 13511C - car licence not his other number. Remember the night at the football game when Tom & Tom walked us home. Remember when Ralph walked us home & when he was suppose to but there was a mixup, & when you know who & that thing walked us home & we sat on the front porch.
Remember when we went to the park with Bob & Ronny. Remember Danny & Hugh & Frank.

We've had a lot of memories together & have gotten along fairly well with a few arguments here & there. I hope we can get along together for the next ~~~~~ years.

All my love
except ?? share
